The North is NOT so Cold!

The FGBMFI in Sweden has a strong sense of vision. The men are reaching to high levels in the business community with refreshed energy.

Denmark put on a business seminar on the 27th March. It is believed that as we begin to network together more and more as Christian business men, these seminars will become very important. They provide needed training for many, as well as a place where members can invite other business people. Today people everywhere want positive business training. Each meeting of the day was powerful and those attending were not only touched, but changed in positive way through the power of the Holy Spirit. We were left with the feeling that this is definitely a model that should be used a great deal. It really works.

In the time between the Swedish convention and the seminar in Denmark a team went to Estonia. While meeting with our men there we told them that business seminars are exactly what they need. Please pray that they are able to work out the logistics there to make this not only possible, but successful for them.

A Golden Chain

The golden chain will be released in your nation. This happens when ordinary business men reach out under the direction the living God to touch others. They in turn tell others what they have received and the simple testimony of their real experiences are used by God to help others. It has a snowballing effect. It is powerful.

Comments on Voice Conference in France

Lynn Heritage, Wales: On receiving Voice Magazine, I immediately had a quickening in my spirit that I had to be there. Within five minutes of getting into my office I had already booked to come. When John Carrette spoke about the golden chain, I really got the message. When John was in Wales last fall I understood it in part, and it changed the way I ran my chapter. I see now that my role as a leader is to encourage the men in my chapter to be a link in that chain, empowered to reach out and touch others in practical ways.

From Denmark: In our nation we are afraid of losing our identity. I have learned through the FGBMFI that there are no borders in God's kingdom. Our culture is different from France. It was a long drive for us. We had not come more than 30 kms. across the German border when the road was blocked by four fallen trees. Then the storm got so bad that we could hardly see. Eventually we made it through and arrived safely. God has shown me during these meetings that "now is the time for action". It is so easy to always put off really stepping out – raising our visibility.

Nicaragua

There is something happening right now that is like nothing we have seen before. Some of the chapters have as many as 50% new people in each meeting. There is now a vision to reach the nation – to touch every family in the nation. This mammoth undertaking will be joined by FGBMFI members from around the world. There will be four phases to this outreach:

1. The media and government.
2. Preparing the teams. This in itself will be a powerful conference.
3. Going out. Teams will go to businesses and pray for them. They will pass out one million newspapers, Voice and other literature. They will seek to touch every family in Nicaragua.
4. The week will culminate with a major outreach with tens of thousands of people invited back by the teams to witness miracles.

El Salvador

Full Gospel Business Men in El Salvador have been praying for their nation. The result has been many tangible miracles and the people have hope. Because of prayer there is a spirit of expectancy for positive things in this nation. Many have been coming into a deep relationship with God through this time as well.

Central America

Something is happening. When we talk about Jesus, people's eyes light up. The vision is simple: Every man in our Fellowship is a key to reach some place special. For example, we've been talking to a high police official. Other teams are working with the parliament and congress. The Bible talks about speaking in tongues. This also refers to speaking in the special language of the engineer, doctor, lawyer, politician, and so on.

"Light to the Nations"

Luis Arana, Guatemala

Our members feel called to reach the nations. Men of vision came to help us and now it is our turn to go out and bless others. We are travelling, reaching out to people with problems with alcohol, drugs, homosexuality, etc. Teams have been to Paraguay, Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Peru, Colombia, Panama, El Salvador, Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, the Caribbean, Cuba, and the list goes on. Cuba has seven chapters now and their members are growing. We take a message of life to those without hope.'

Delhi, India

One hundred twenty-eight of what were described as, "the cream of Delhi business men believers", gathered on the 21st of March for a dinner. We presented the FGBMFI – its origins and vision. Dr. Graham Tipple, President of the Newcastle Chapter, talked about the impact of the FGBMFI in Ghana, Malaysia and other places. Eric Bardell shared about the impact in the Philippines.

The anointing was tangible. The buzz and excitement as we began the meal was electric. The men were excited and wanted to start chapters. Thirty business men came to a follow-up meeting and they fixed dates for the next chapter meeting. FGBMFI is well and truly established. One Indian business man said that there were so many missions to India's poor and needy, but he had been praying for years that he could somehow reach the upper and middle classes.
